Dedication

Mr. William Butler

A teacher's work is never done and when a busy teacher gives a few of his spare moments to help a class we feel this person deserves some recognition. For this reason we, the class of 1965 dedicate the 1965 Chevalier to Mr. William Butler. He has served two years as our class advisor giving us a helping hand through many rough days. For this we are deeply indebted to him.

CAMPAIGN OF 1828

Andrew Jackson addresses a group of his followers in the hard-fought campaign of 1828. This picture is by Howard Pyle.

In most of the closed primary States, party membership is established when a person registers to vote. When the voter appears at the polls on primary election day his registration is checked and he is then handed the primary ballot of the party in which he is registered.

In some of the closed primary States, especially in the South, party membership is established through the use of the so-called "challenge system." Under this scheme, the voter is usually required to take an oath that he supported the party's candidates at the last general election or that he will support them at the next.

In any of the closed primary States a person who does not wish to disclose his party preference may still register to vote. He cannot vote in the primaries because they are party nominating elections. However, he may still vote in the general election.

(2) The open primary is a nominating election in which any qualified voter may participate. No one is required to declare his party preference at registration or at any other time. When a person appears at the polling place on primary election day he is handed the ballots of all parties holding primaries (usually there are only two, Republican and Democrat). In the privacy of the voting booth the voter then selects the ballot of the party in whose primary he wants to participate.

An interesting variation of the open primary is used in Washington State. It is known as the "wide-open" or "blanket" primary. Under it, the voter is handed only one ballot containing the names of all those who are seeking nominations in each party. The voter may vote in only one party's primary to nominate candidates for office, or he may switch back and forth among the parties. For example, he may vote to nominate a candidate for governor in the Republican primary and a candidate for United States Senator in the Democratic primary, and so on down the ballot making one nomination for each office.

Pro and Con. The major arguments advanced in favor of the closed primary are: (1) It prevents the members of one party from "raiding" the other party's primary in the hope of nominating weak candidates. (2) It tends to make a candidate more responsible to the party and its members because he must choose between the parties in order to participate in the primaries.

The major arguments advanced against the closed primary are: (1) It compromises the secrecy of the ballot to the extent that a voter must declare his party preference. (2) It completely excludes the independent voter from the nominating process.

Chapter 25. NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

In nine States, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Mississippi, and Texas, a second or "run-off" election is held only if the first election results in a tie. A run-off is held in cases of ties.

Take my hand.
Let's be friends.
Mine is a helping hand,
Take it!
Let me share your load.
Your laughter is light in my hand.
Your tears burn my palm.
I can feel pulse on pulse
When your hand touches mine.
Your burden seems too heavy now?
Let me lift it for you.
Two hands make an easy weight.
Our hands will toughen as we work
In the heat of the day.
Tugging, pulling, lifting—
Rest awhile, your hand in mine.
Give me your hand, my friend.
You are not alone.

Strong hands—sure hands.
Fingers that teach.
Hands of our leaders,
Helping us to reach

Guiding us over the rough places.
Pulling us as we begin to fall
When our destination seems so far away.
Coaxing us to reach the high places—
The goals just ahead.

What is a hand?
Look closely!
Five fingers—count them!
Bone, marrow, blood.
A covering of something called skin.
A hand may be soft—soothing to the touch.
A large hand for work—hard and unrelenting.
A baby hand for love—angelic and pure.
A hand for holding—vibrating and promising.
It lies there—meaningless, motionless.
Then a ripple of movement . . .

The final district/state scholarship team was chosen from the winners of the preliminary district/state test in each particular class.

The scholarship team this year won many honors including Martha Murtaugh's first place in the state in English 11.

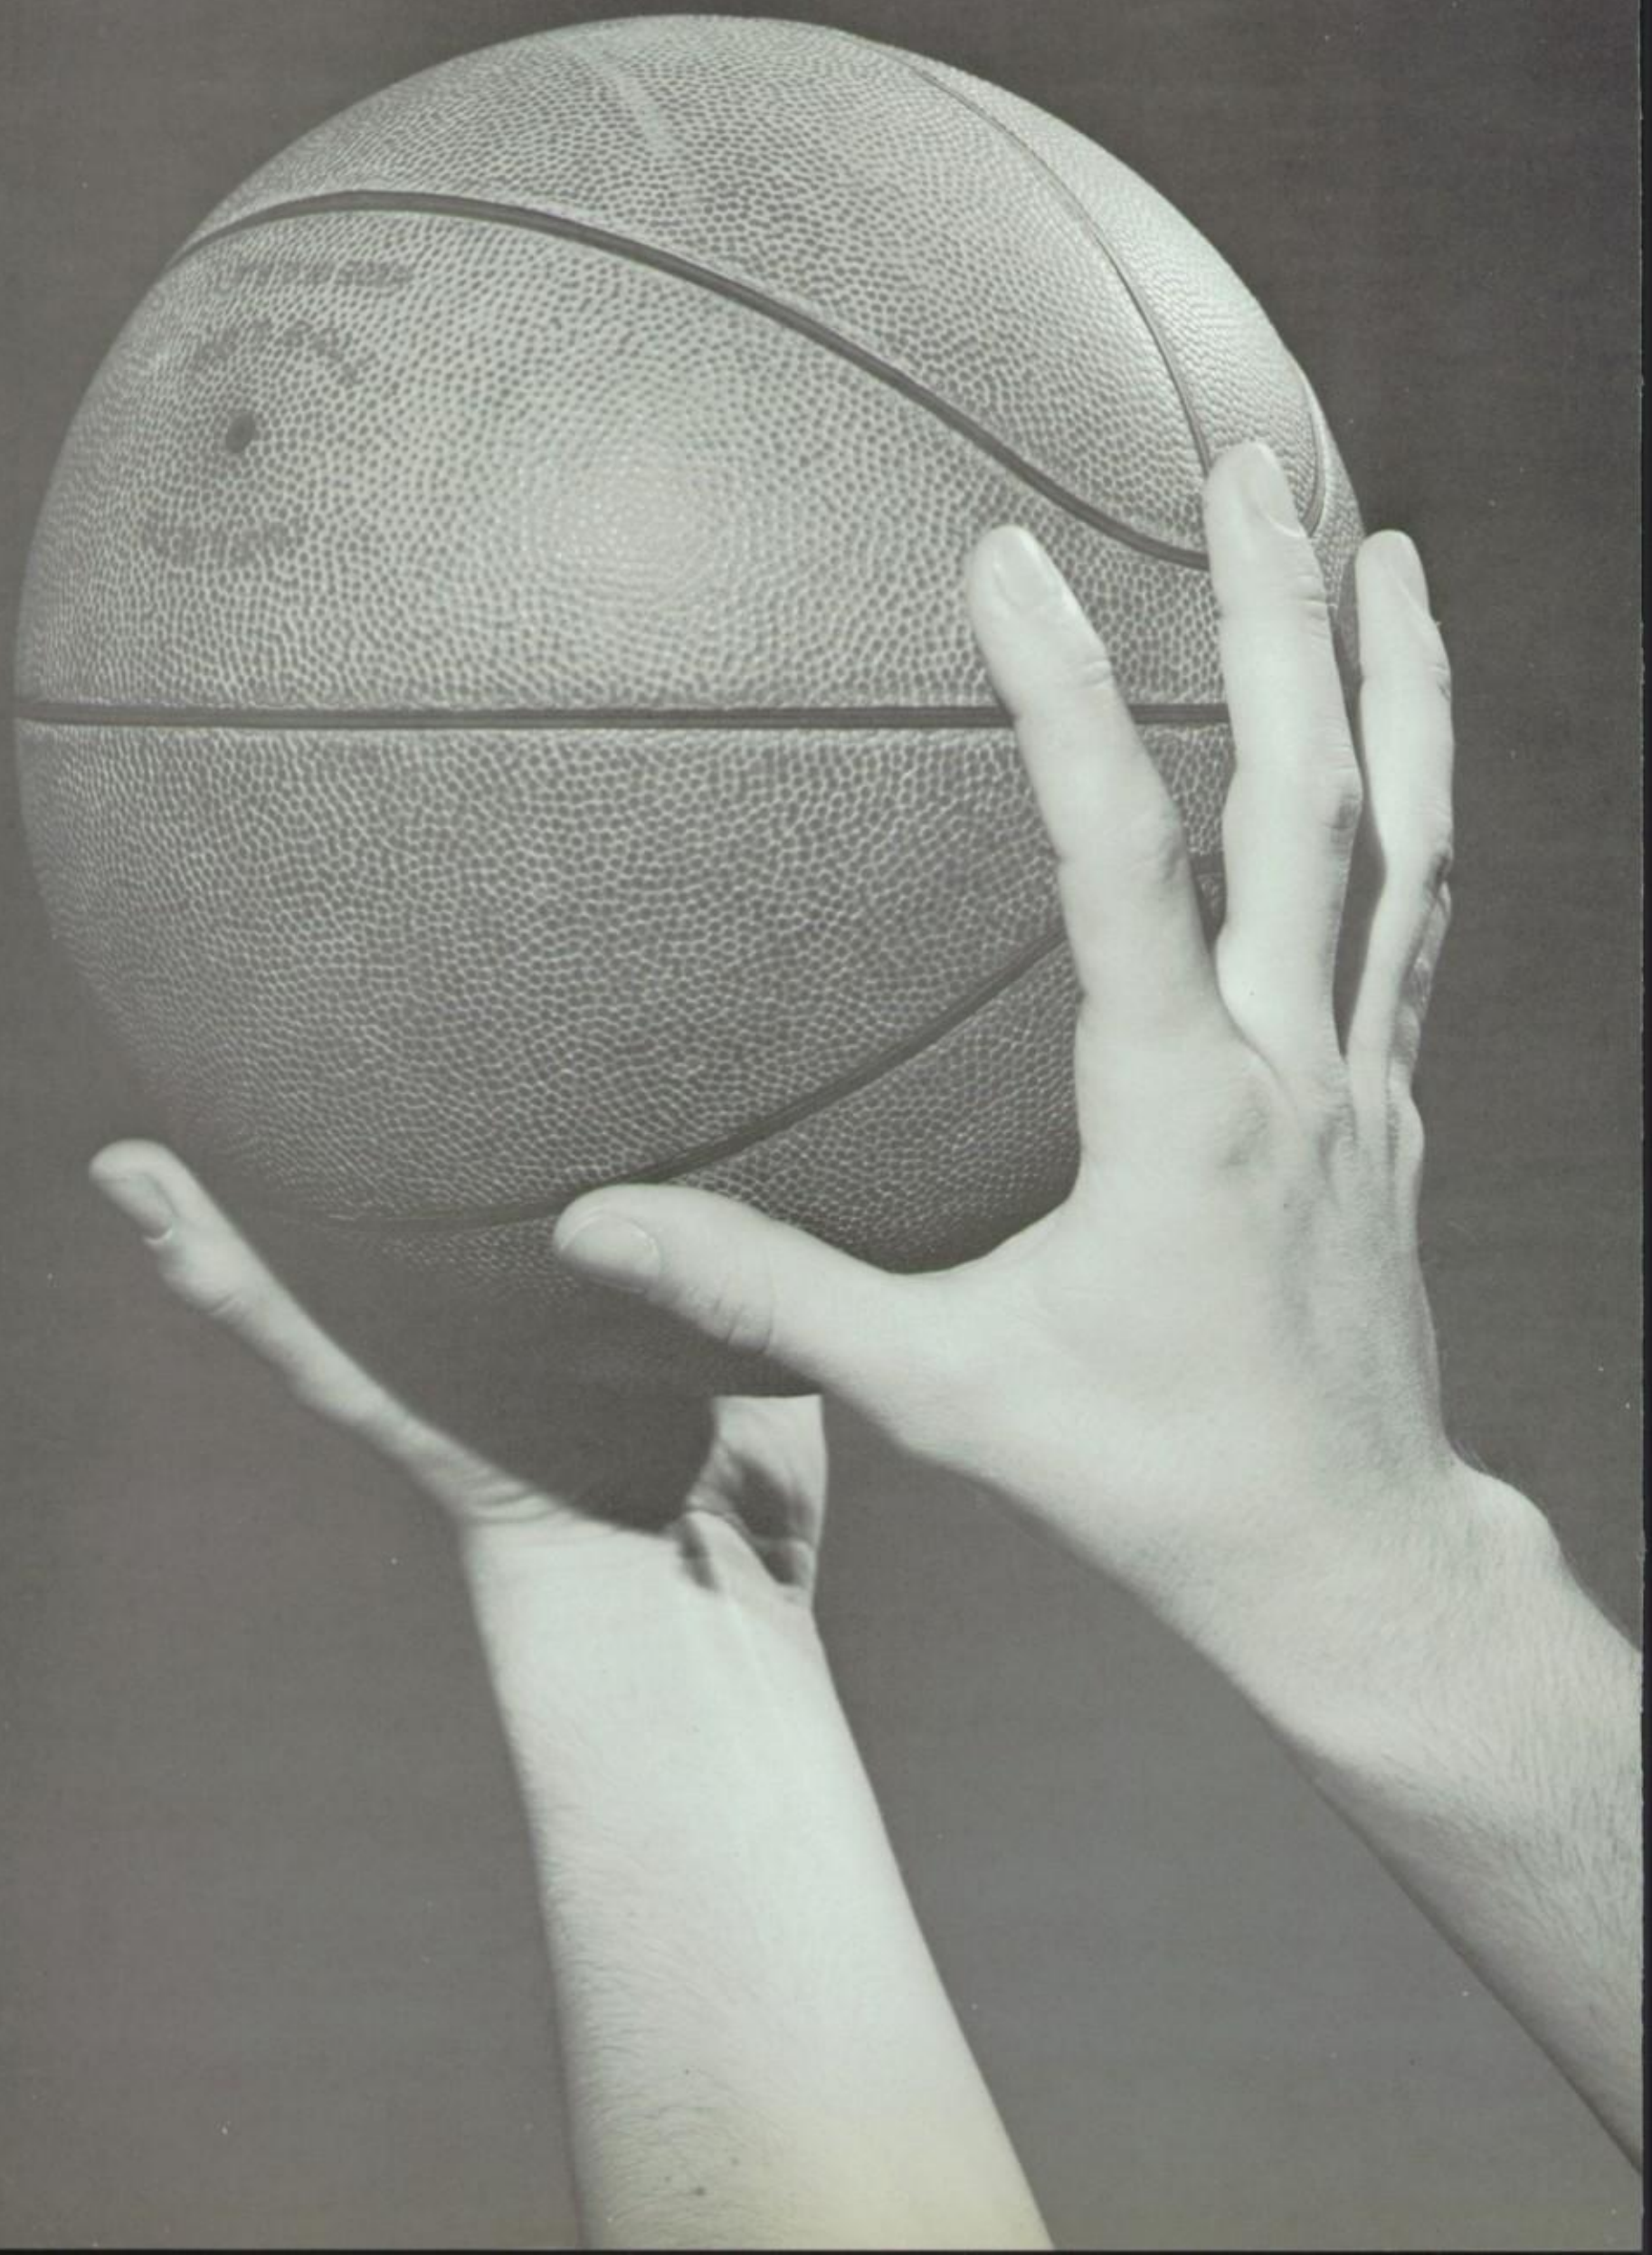

The scholarship team to Ashland College took classes during the summer between their junior and senior years and in the fall. They were chosen on the basis of SAT scores, high school grades, and character. They are to be commended on the high grades they earned in their courses.

The Mapleton Mountie football squad finished its second season, this year under the direction of Coach Jim Reynolds. Although, this team didn't have a winning season (7 losses, 1 tie), the boys gave their fans a number of enjoyable afternoons and evenings.

Few people realize the hard work required to put a football squad into playing condition. Starting in August the boys did calisthenics, learned many new formations, and prepared themselves for the tough games ahead. After weeks of training, the squad was finally ready to play a game.

The first game against Crestview was a heartbreaker which the Mounties eventually lost. On October 17, the Mounties tied Black River 6-6. An exciting game all the way, the Homecoming crowd was pleased with what they saw.

The 1964-65 football squad was a hard-working group that had a few bad breaks. Greater things are expected of the team next year.

The Varsity team ended the regular basketball season with a 6-11 record. Coach Charles Boylan guided the team through practices after school and sometimes on Saturdays. The boys developed their playing skills and put them to use on the gym floor, but somehow the Mounties usually ended up on the bottom of the scoring. Our team really tried, but the opponents proved to be too much.

All the games played were exciting, but those the Mounties won were extra thrilling. Towards the end of the season the fans were really behind the team and when the last game against the Hillsdale Falcons was played, the audience showed the team how real supporters yelled. The team won that game and the victory bell rang long and loud.

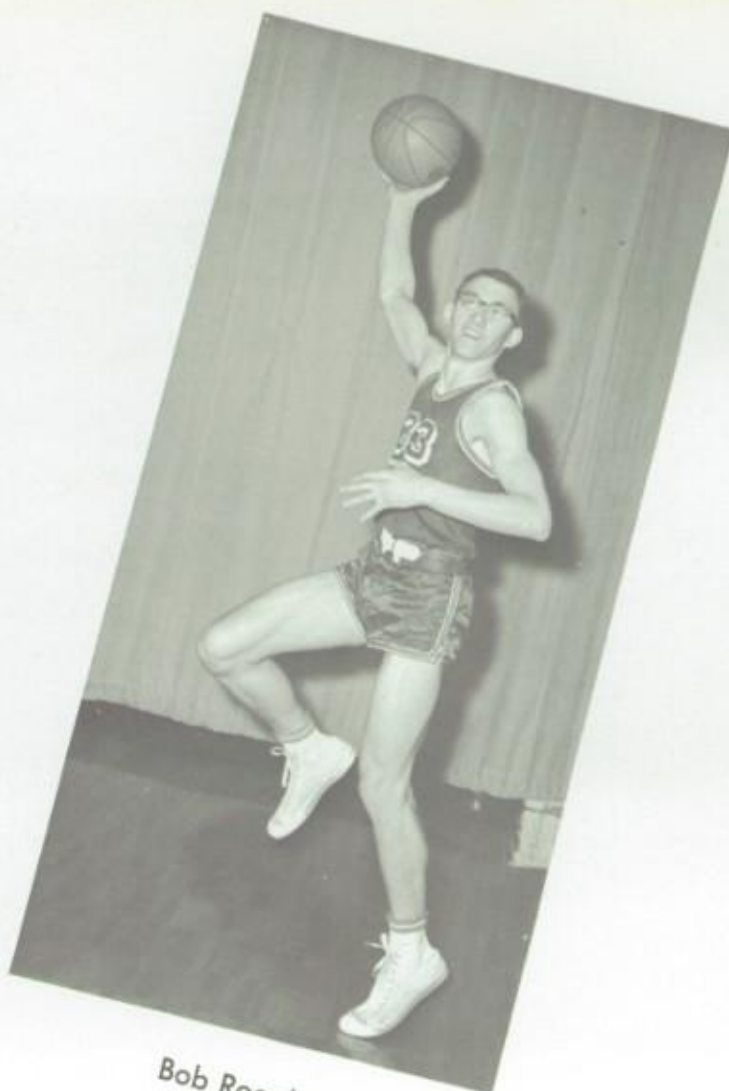

In tournament play, Mapleton defeated Waynedale and then played Dalton. This game was lost by a very small margin.

The team and the cheerleaders will always remember the games in which they participated and the fun they had. They will also remember the long, hard, tiring practices which are necessary for all competitive play.

The Junior Varsity basketball squad under the supervision of Coach Bernard Hovan finished with a 6-11 record. The sophomores and the few freshmen and juniors who composed the team were playing mainly for the experience. When they become varsity players, they should be accomplished players. Some of the squad members did play varsity ball toward the latter part of the season. They were a fine looking team who showed marked improvement during the season. The school is looking forward to this team providing interesting entertainment for Mountie fans for the next two years.

The freshmen boys who enjoy basketball played together for the first time this past winter. Under the direction of Coach Dave Smalley they accumulated eight victories and nine losses which wasn't a bad record for their first year together. Like the Jr. Varsity squad they played mostly to gain experience and to get the feeling of playing as a team. They played the freshman teams of some of the Firelands Conference schools besides New London and other non-conference teams. The team as a whole looked promising and by next winter should provide their fans with some exciting basketball.

The Mounties finished their regular season by defeating Hillsdale 6 to 4 and winning the championship for the southern division of the Firelands Conference. They had five victories in the conference and no defeats. However, their record was 6-8 for the season.

Coach Bernard Hovan's team played exciting ball all season, coming up with key hits to score those extra runs and some top notch pitching by Bob Brownson, Dan Welch, and Dean Hawley. They were a fine-looking team and deserve a pat on the back for a successful season.

Capping a successful track season, Mapleton's mighty Mounties breasted the tape with forty-one points to finish a strong third in the Firelands Conference Meet May 12. Six more points would have given the Mounties the conference championship. Gary Gault, Ken Rinard, Tod Crumrine, and Bob Gerwig blazed to a new conference record of 3:44.2 in the mile relay.

Although weak in the field events the Mapleton thinclads showed themselves to be the swiftest runners in the area as they raced to the winning side of the ledger with a 4-3 record.

Six key men will be lost through graduation. They are Bob Roepke and Tony Howman, dashes; Tod Crumrine, relays, broadjump and discus; Ken Rinard, high jump, and 440; Bob Gerwig, premier 440 man; and Bill Dignin the nonpareil of the area 880 men.

With the help of this year's fine junior high athletes, the returning squad members could develop into a conference powerhouse next year.

The Varsity "M" is composed of any boy or girl who has earned a varsity letter in football, basketball, baseball, track for the boys, and cheerleading for the girls. Their project this year was selling advertisements for the basketball programs. The money from the advertisements was used to purchase red blazers for the Varsity basketball team.

MUSIC

Soft as the feet of fog.
Cool as a mother's hand
On fevered brow.
Bright as the sunlight
On new fallen snow.
Loud as the thunder

Fresh as the dew
In the heart of the rose.
Comforting as a warm bath
After winter's blast.
So falls the music of our hands
On listening ears.

The Mapleton Mountie Band spent a busy year starting with their marching season. They marched in the 1964 Balloon Festival, Loudonville's Sesquicentennial celebration, and then at Mapleton's football games. All this required many hours of practice for the band members and Mr. Vaas. The band presented two concerts, one for Christmas and another in May, besides participating in a county musical with Hillsdale. In March the band members traveled to Ontario for the district band and chorus contest. After receiving a "superior" rating, they were entitled to participate in the state contest at Columbus in April. There they received an "excellent" rating which is also the mark of a good band.

Many members of the band were also in the instrumental ensembles which were entered in the solo and ensemble district contest in Mount Vernon. The trombone quartet did exceptionally well by receiving superior ratings at both district and state contest.

Each spring one outstanding senior in the band is given the John Philip Sousa Award. This person is selected by fellow band members. Dennis Gifton was the choice of the 1964-1965 Mountie Band. The year was climaxed with a party for the band members and their dates.

ORGANIZATIONS

Hands are used for many things,
Such as wearing high school rings.
When hands are folded—neat and clean,
All the world is calm—serene.
The hands of men won't shirk the toil,
They always build,
Yet never spoil
Beauty or the commonplace.
The hands of workers shape the earth.
They seek to prove the unquestioned worth
Of work well done.
Look up—lift your eyes
To the high places.
Unfold those hands.

The Student Council of 1964-1965 has had a busy year. After the school organizations got under way the council began its work. Under the direction of Mr. Camp and a good president the following officers were elected: Vice-President—Alan Steiner, Secretary—Christine Sloan, and Treasurer—Becky Smetzer.

Faced with Mapleton's first homecoming, the council began to work. We then developed the procedures for the election of the queen and her court and the festivities for the game and the dance. We are happy that these plans will be a tradition at Mapleton High.

Book covers were purchased at the beginning of the school year for sale to the student body.

A dance code and a suggestion for dress were also developed for us in future years.

As the year came to the end, the council conducted the school elections and we ended the year with the third annual school olympics—which the Seniors won.

The news reporters of the different clubs and organizations submit their news articles to the Messenger staff. Besides these articles there are several features written by the staff members which appear in the monthly Messenger which is typed by the office practice class.

Once all the news is collected they are proofread very carefully and then placed on a dummy sheet. When all the dummy sheets are completed, a stencil is typed and again proofread. The Messenger is then ready to be mimeographed and distributed to its subscribers.

The school paper is under the direction of:

Each student who works in the library is a member of the Dewey Decimals. During the monthly meetings the club discussed better procedures for more efficiency in the library, and planned several group projects. Mr. Lee reviewed The Child Buyer by John Hersey at one meeting. Throughout the year sponsored the paper book sales, using their profits to purchase the Dictionary of American Biography. The club held a bake sale on May 15. The profits from this sale will be used to purchase a book cart for use in the study hall next year.

Each student who works in the library has several duties to fulfill. He has the task of reshelving books and magazines, keeping cards in order, repairing books and magazines, and helping students who need assistance. Each student assistant receives one fourth credit for his work during the school year. Anyone who likes books would enjoy being a library assistant.

Officers of the Dewey Decimals were:

Vice-President.....	Janet Scott
Treasurer.....	Cathy Steiner
Secretary.....	Linda Baker

Membership in the National Honor Society has become recognized nationally as one of the highest honors that can be bestowed upon a high school student. It is more than an honor; it carries with it a responsibility and should be considered the beginning of an obligation.

To gain this honor, the student must have received at least a B average scholastically. Although grades play a large part in gaining membership, basis for membership includes scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

The 1964-1965 members of the Mapleton National Honor Society were:

President.....	Diane Lacy
Vice-President.....	George Pfeiffer
Secretary.....	Lucretia Martin
Treasurer.....	Georgia Crow
Student Council.....	Bob Brownson
Advisor.....	Mr. Charles Lee

The National Honor Society held its induction ceremonies on March 8, 1965. Ten new members were brought into the chapter. For the Easter assembly, the organization presented a pageant entitled "I Was There."

The club sold Mapleton High School pens to earn money for pins for members who earned 20 points or more. Members receive points for working in the library, assisting in classes, running errands, grading papers, committee work, achieving the honor roll, attending club meetings, and membership in the National Honor Society.

One day during the year, the group gets to teach classes for experience.

This busy chapter, under the direction of Mrs. Sue Boylan, participated in the fall county rally, presented a style show at Crestview High School and Ashland High School, and attended the sub-regional meeting at Buckeye Valley High School.

Each month of the school year an award is given to the girl who has contributed the most to the organization. The award of Girl of the Month was presented to Jan Briley, Mary Copsey, Kathy Krause, Chris Sloan, and Linda Dull. Doris McClellan was chosen Girl of the Year.

The chapter received the Award of Merit, an honor given by the state for completing the state's program.

1965 has been a good year for our Girls Athletic Association with Karen Conwell as president, Linda Wesner as vice-president, Pat Stentz as secretary and Gail Bebee as treasurer.

Our first main event of the year was initiation for new members, complete with blind folds, skinned grapes, vinegar tonic, a torture chamber, and for a grand climax a tennis shoe free-for-all.

In October we organized varsity and reserve volleyball teams. We held a "Volleyball Night" which was open to the public, at which time we played and beat the Black River girls. Our record for the volleyball season was 4-1.

By November we were busy organizing our basketball teams for the fall and winter season. Our record was 2-2.

In December we held our notorious slumber party at Mrs. Lemon's house. Here we did everything but sleep.

During the Spring, G. A. A. girls went swimming at the Y. M. C. A. and had a bowling party at Charger Lanes.

Our year was climaxed with a picnic at Brookside Park at which time we donated a check for $250 to the Booster Club to be used towards the building of the athletic field.

The G. A. A. works on a point system. Each member must maintain 65 points. Those reaching 100 or more are awarded certificates and trophies. Trophies and Certificates were awarded to Linda Wesner and Sue McQuillen who each earned 117 points. Certificates were also awarded to Jennifer Bebee—115 points, Iva Kinter—115 points and Sally Cline—113 points. The ribbons, which all members receive, trophies and certificates were presented at our last meeting which was held at Brookside.

Each year the Latin Club holds a slave auction. The first year Latin students are bought by the second year students for any amount of money they want to pay. During slave week, slaves must serve their masters by carrying their books and doing everything the master requires. Following slave week, the club holds their Roman Banquet. This is the big event of the year for all Latin Club members.

Since Mapleton High School does not have an art department, several of the students formed a club, under the supervision of Mr. Lee, Guidance Counselor.

During the first semester the group held weekly meetings in the drawing room. The members practiced with charcoal, pastels, pencil sketching, and some water and oil painting.

Due to circumstances beyond our control, the club had to discontinue weekly meetings. During the remainder of the year, students worked independently on dance committees, decoration committees, and other projects requiring their talents.
